

As a resident of the great State of Indiana, I vehemently oppose any action that would weaken the State's current telephone privacy law. If necessary, I will cease to do business with any association that intrudes on my privacy at home. I believe that this is what is in the best interests of most consumers, and the American public at large.

Thank you